Sunday, 13 October 2019 Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

A warm welcome to St Mary's Cathedral!

Tonight (Sunday) in Rome, Pope Frances will Canonise Blessed John Henry Newman, and several other new Saints! Recently the cathedral received the generous bequest of a prie-dieu (kneeler) formerly in John Henry Newman's rooms in the Birmingham Oratory, from the estate of the late Mrs Helen Campion. This wonderful connection with the saint will be displayed near the Newman Memorial Window, in the Irish Saints Chapel.

You may notice some other "new" old furniture in that chapel: I am very pleased the original clergy benches from the main sanctuary, designed by the cathedral architect William Wardell, are now back in the building, serving as choir stalls in the Irish Saints Chapel, where Vespers is sung most weeknights and Lauds is sung each Sunday morning.

During September we did a head-count of the numbers at Mass each day in the cathedral. Having these figures is very helpful for planning and providing appropriate resources.

Here is the average attendance of the Saturday night and Sunday Masses: Saturday 6pm, 242; Sunday 7am Mass, 87; 9am Mass, 277; 10.30am Solemn Mass, 658; 12.15 Trad. Latin Low Mass, 83; 6.00pm Mass, 441.

On weekdays, the average numbers were: 6.45am, 33; 1.10pm, 230; 5.30pm, 147.

The next phase of this process is to update the Cathedral Parish Census, especially so that the priests know who is living in our parish, but also so that we can better understand and provide for all the pastoral care of all our "regulars"! For that reason, from this weekend for the next few weeks we are distributing "census forms" at all the Masses. My hope is that you will all share a little information with us about yourselves, even if you are just a visitor to Sydney.

Of course, this is not in any way compulsory, but it would help me and the other Fathers to understand better what we need to do about pastoral matters, such as providing the sacraments and other possible activities and needs, and it will also help me and my staff provide for the proper management of the Cathedral and its facilities. Census forms and pencils are available at each Mass.

I would especially ask those who live within the Parish or worship here regularly to complete the whole form. Feel free to take it home, complete it, and bring it back next time.

God bless,

Fr Don Richardson, Dean

First Reading 2 Kgs 5:14-17

A reading from the second book of the Kings

Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.

Naaman the leper went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, as Elisha had told him to do. And his flesh became clean once more like the flesh of a little child.

Returning to Elisha with his whole escort, he went in and stood before him. 'Now I know' he said, 'that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now, please, accept a present from your servant.' But Elisha replied, 'As the Lord lives, whom I serve, I will accept nothing.' Naaman pressed him to accept, but he refused. Then Naaman said, 'Since your answer is "No," allow your servant to be given as much earth as two mules may carry, because your servant will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any god except the Lord.'

Responsorial Psalm 97:1-4. R. v.2

The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

1. Sing a new song to the Lord for he has worked wonders. His right hand and his holy arm have brought salvation.  $(\mathbf{R})$

2. The Lord has made known his salvation; has shown his justice to the nations. He has remembered his truth and love for the house of Israel. (R)

3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Shout to the Lord all the earth, ring out your joy.  $(\mathbf{R})$

Second Reading 2 Tm 2:8-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

If we hold firm, we shall reign with Christ.

Remember the Good News that I carry. 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal – but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen, so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it.

Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

Gospel Lk 17:11-19

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus travelled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered one of the villages, ten lepers came to meet him. They stood some way off and called to him, 'Jesus! Master! Take pity on us.' When he saw them he said, 'Go and show yourselves to the priests.' Now as they were going away they were cleansed. Finding himself cured, one of them turned back praising God at the top of his voice and threw himself at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. The man was a Samaritan. This made Jesus say, 'Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they? It seems that no one has come back to give praise to God, except this foreigner.' And he said to the man, 'Stand up and go on your way. Your faith has saved you.'
