

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Matins and Midnight Mass

The Nativity of the Lord

2020

WELCOME

to St Mary's Cathedral which stands in the centre of Sydney as a Christian statement of grace and beauty. Generations of artists have bequeathed to it their magnificent gifts in stone and glass, designing a unique space of solace and prayer within this vibrant city. This Cathedral represents the spiritual origins of the Catholic Church in Australia. It is one of Sydney's most treasured historic buildings and one of the finest examples of English-style gothic churches in the world. William Wilkinson Wardell, the 19th century architect, dreamed of a gothic structure shaped from the local yellow-block sandstone on which this city is built. The building was finally completed 100 years after the architect's death. The Cathedral is dedicated to Mary, Immaculate Mother of God, Help of Christians.

APOSTOLIC BLESSING

At the end of this Mass the Archbishop will impart the Papal Blessing, which carries with it the grant of a Plenary Indulgence. The Plenary Indulgence may be received by all Catholics present who are truly penitent; and have confessed their sins, have prayed for the intentions of the Pope and the Church, and have received Holy Communion.

An Indulgence is 'a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints. An indulgence is partial or plenary according as it removes either part or all of the temporal punishment due to sin.' (Pope Paul VI, Indulgentiarum doctrina)

Indulgences gained may be applied to the living or the dead.

MATINS

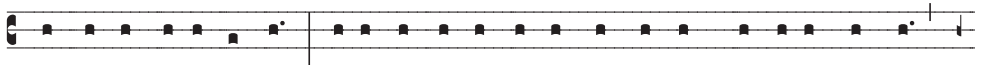

The night office: Vigils, or Matins, is as old as the Church, and grew out of the practice of rising in the middle of the night for the purpose of prayer. The custom of beginning certain solemnities with a Vigil developed from the great Easter Vigil. By praying during the night, the faithful are encouraged to look forward to the Lord's coming: 'At midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out to meet him."' (Matthew 25:6). 'So stay awake, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming, evening, midnight, cockcrow, dawn; if he comes unexpectedly, he must not find you asleep.' (Mark 13:35-36). In Matins, also called the Office of Readings, the reading of sacred scripture is accompanied by psalms and hymns, making the Office a conversation between God and man, and thus has the character of true prayer.

At the sound of the Sacristy bell all stand.

INTRODUCTION TO THE OFFICE

God, come to our aid.

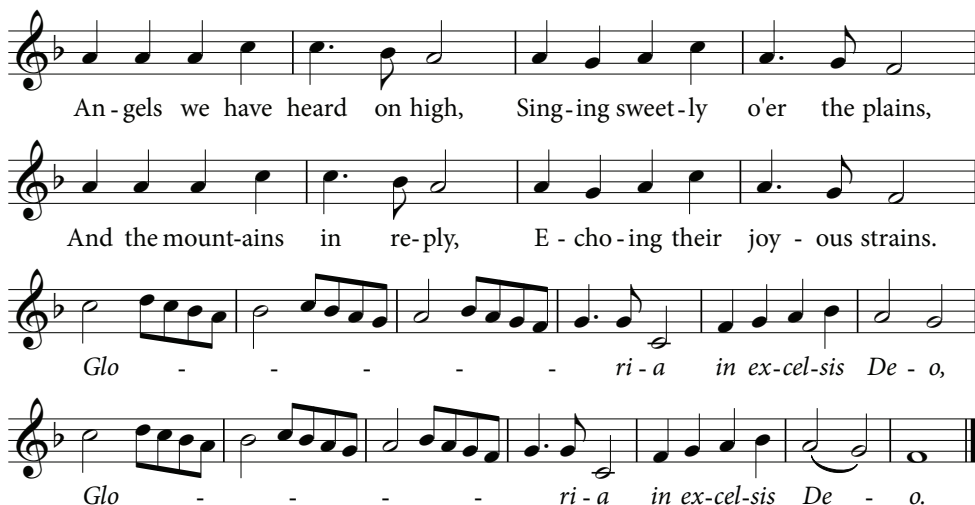

℞ O Lord, make haste to help us. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spi-rit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,

Glo - - - - - ri - a in ex - cel - sis De - o,
Glo - - - - - ri - a in ex - cel - sis De - o.

2

Shepherds why this jubilee?
Why your rapturous strain prolong?
What the gladsome tidings be,
Which inspire your heavenly song?
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

3

Come to Bethlehem and see
Him whose birth the angels sing:
Come, adore on bended knee
Christ the Lord, the new-born King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

4

See him in a manger laid,
Whom the choirs of angels praise;
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid,
While our hearts in love we raise.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

All repeat the Antiphon.

Graciousness is poured up-on your lips, because God has blessed you for evermore.

PSALM 44 (45)

- Cantor* 1 My heart overflows with noble words. †
To the king I must speak the | song I have | made, *
my tongue as nimble as the pen | of a | scribe.
- All* 2 You are the fairest of the children of men †
and graciousness is poured up- | on your | lips: *
because God has blessed you for | ever- | more.
- 3 O mighty one, gird your sword upon your thigh; †
in splendour and state, ride | on in | triumph *
for the cause of truth and good- | ness and | right.
- 4 Take aim with your bow in your dread right hand. †
Your arrows are sharp, peoples | fall be- | neath you. *
The foes of the king fall down | and lose | heart.
- 5 Your throne, O God, shall endure for ever. †
A sceptre of justice is the sceptre | of your | kingdom. *
Your love is for justice; your ha- | tred for | evil.
- 6 Therefore God, your God, has a-nointed you † with the oil of gladness above | other | kings: *
your robes are fragrant with a- | loes and | myrrh.
- 7 From the ivory palace you are greeted with music. †
The daughters of kings are a- | mong your | loved ones. *
On your right stands the queen in | gold of | Ophir.
- 8 Listen, O daughter, give | ear to my | words: *
forget your own people and your | father's | house.
- 9 So will the king de- | sire your | beauty: *
He is your lord, pay ho- | mage to | him.

- All repeat the Antiphon.*

The first system of musical notation for 'The Rose Tree' is written on a five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some notes beamed together. The system ends with a double bar line.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 11:1-10

THUS says the Lord: there shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the wicked. Righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist, and faithfulness the girdle of his loins. The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The suckling child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. They shall not hurt nor destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. In that day the root of Jesse shall stand as an ensign to the peoples; him shall the nations seek, and his dwellings shall be glorious.

A reading from a Sermon by Pope St Leo the Great.

THIS is the day our Saviour was born: what a joy for us, my beloved! This is no season for sadness, this, the birthday of Life—the Life which annihilates the fear of death, and engenders joy, promising, as it does, immortality. Nobody is an outsider to this happiness. The same cause for joy is common to all, for as our Lord found nobody free from guilt when he came to bring an end to death and sin, so he came with redemption for all. Let the saint rejoice, for he hastens to his crown: let the sinner be filled with joy, for pardon is offered him; let the Gentile be emboldened, for he is called to life. When the designated time had come, which God in his deep and impenetrable plan had fixed upon, God's Son took the nature of man upon himself in order to reconcile man to his Creator. Thus would the devil, the father of death, be himself overcome by that self-same human nature which he had overcome. The angels therefore exult at the birth of the Lord: they sing: 'Glory to God in high heaven'; they announce 'Peace on earth for men on whom his favour rests.' For they behold the heavenly Jerusalem being constructed from out of the peoples on earth. How greatly ought mere men rejoice at this mysterious undertaking of divine love, when the angels on high thrill so much at it! My beloved, let us offer thanksgiving to God the Father, through his Son, in the Holy Spirit. In the great mercy with which he loved us, he had pity on us, and 'in giving life to Christ, gave life to us too, when we were dead through sin,' so that in him we might be a new creation, a new work of his hands. Let us be quit of the old self and the habits that went with it. Sharers now in the birth of Christ, let us break with the deeds of the flesh. O Christian, be aware of your nobility—it is God's own nature that you share: do not then, by an ignoble life, fall back into your former baseness. Think of the Head, think of the Body of which you are a member. Recall that you have been rescued from the power of darkness, and have been transferred to the light of God, the kingdom of God. Through the sacrament of baptism you have been made a temple of the Holy Spirit; do not, by evil deeds, drive so great an indweller away from you, submitting yourself once more to the slavery of the devil. For you were bought at the price of Christ's blood.

All sing

O lit - tle town of Beth - le - hem, How still we see thee lie!
A - bove thy deep and dream-less sleep The si - lent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth The ev - er - last - ing light;

2

O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth;
For Christ is born of Mary
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wondering love.

3

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heav'n.
No ear may hear his coming;
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still
The dear Christ enters in.

4

O holy child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell:
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE BIRTH OF CHRIST

TODAY, the twenty-fifth of December, under a waxing moon, unknown ages from the time when God created the heavens and the earth and then formed man and woman in his own image. Several thousand years after the flood, when God made the rainbow shine forth as a sign of the covenant and of peace. Twenty-one centuries from the time when Abraham, our father in faith, set out from Ur of the Chaldees; thirteen centuries after Moses led the people of Israel out of Egypt; about one thousand years from the anointing of David as king; in the sixty-fifth week according to the prophet of Daniel. In the one hundred and ninety-fourth Olympiad; the seven hundred and fifty-second year from the foundation of the city of Rome. The forty-second year of the reign of Octavian Augustus; the whole world being at peace, Jesus Christ, eternal God and Son of the eternal Father, desiring to sanctify the world by his merciful coming, being conceived by the Holy Spirit, and nine months having passed since his conception, was born in Bethlehem of Judea of the Virgin Mary. Today is the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh.

ORDER OF MASS

All stand at the sound of the Sacristy bell, and remain silent as a chorister sings

ONCE in royal David's city
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby
In a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

All sing

He came down to earth from heav-en, Who is God and Lord of__ all,
And his shel - ter was__ a__ sta-ble, And his cra - dle was__ a__ stall;
With the poor, and mean, and low-ly, Lived on earth our Sa - viour ho - ly.

And through all his wondrous childhood
He would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden,
In whose gentle arms he lay;
Christian children all must be
Mild, obedient, good as he.

4

For he is our childhood's pattern,
Day by day like us he grew,
He was little, weak, and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us he knew;
And he feeleth for our sadness,
And he shareth in our gladness.

5

And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love,
For that child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above;
And he leads his children on
To the place where he is gone.

6

Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see him; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
Where like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

The Choir sings the INTROIT

Psalm 2:7; 1, 2, 8

DOMINUS dixit ad me: Filius meus es tu, ego hodie genui te. ʒ. Quare fremuerunt gentes: et populi meditati sunt inania?

The Lord said to me: You are my Son. It is I who have begotten you this day. ʒ. Why this tumult among nations, among peoples this useless murmuring?

All make the Sign of the Cross as the Archbishop says

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

℟: Amen.

Peace be with you.

℟: And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

The Archbishop says

Brethren (brothers and sisters), let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

Lord Jesus, you are mighty God and Prince of Peace: Lord, have mercy.

℟: Lord, have mercy.

You are the Son of God and the Son of Mary: Christ, have mercy.

℟: Christ, have mercy.

You are the Word made Flesh, the splendour of the Father: Lord, have mercy.

℟: Lord, have mercy.

The Archbishop gives the absolution, saying

MAY blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints assist you with their merits and prayers. May the almighty and merciful Lord forgive you and free you from all your sins. May he help you persevere in fruitful penance, good example, and sincere charity, and lead you to everlasting life.

R: Amen.

*Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks
 for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 9:1-7

THE people that walked in darkness has seen a great light; on those who live in a land of deep shadow a light has shone. You have made their gladness greater, you have made their joy increase; they rejoice in your presence as men rejoice at harvest time, as men are happy when they are dividing the spoils. For the yoke that was weighing on him, the barb across his shoulders, the rod of his oppressor, these you break as on the day of Midian. For all the footgear of battle, every cloak rolled in blood, is burnt, and consumed by fire. For there is a child born for us, a son given to us and dominion is laid on his shoulders; and this is the name they give him: Wonder-Counsellor, Mighty-God, Eternal-Father, Prince-of-Peace. Wide is his dominion in a peace that has no end, for the throne of David and for his royal power, which he establishes and makes secure in justice and integrity. From this time onwards and for ever, the jealous love of the Lord of Hosts will do this.

The word of the Lord.

℟️ Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 95:1-3, 11-13 ℟️ Luke 2:11

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
O sing to the Lord, bless his name. ℟️

Proclaim his help day by day, tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. ℟️

Let the heavens rejoice and earth be glad,
let the sea and all within it thunder praise,
let the land and all it bears rejoice,
all the trees of the wood shout for joy
at the presence of the Lord for he comes,
he comes to rule the earth. ℟️

With justice he will rule the world,
he will judge the peoples with his truth. ℟️

GOD'S grace has been revealed, and it has made salvation possible for the whole human race and taught us that what we have to do is to give up everything that does not lead to God, and all our worldly ambitions; we must be self-restrained and live good and religious lives here in this present world, while we are waiting in hope for the blessing which will come with the Appearing of the glory of our great God and saviour Christ Jesus. He sacrificed himself for us in order to set us free from all wickedness and to purify a people so that it could be his very own and would have no ambition except to do good.

GOSPEL

Luke 2:1-14

The Lord be with you.

℟: And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

℟: Glory to you, O Lord.

CAESAR Augustus issued a decree for a census of the whole world to be taken. This census – the first – took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria, and everyone went to his own town to be registered. So Joseph set out from the town of Nazareth in Galilee and travelled up to Judaea, to the town of David called Bethlehem, since he was of David's House and line, in order to be registered together with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. While they were there the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to a son, her first born. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them at the inn. In the countryside close by there were shepherds who lived in the fields and took it in turns to watch their flocks during the night. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone round them. They were terrified, but the angel said, 'Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people. Today in the town of David a saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. And here is a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.' And suddenly with the angel there was a great throng of the heavenly host, praising God and singing: 'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and peace to men who enjoy his favour.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Most Reverend Anthony Fisher OP

Archbishop of Sydney

Following the Homily all stand.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I BELIEVE in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

ALL KNEEL during the following line:

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SUSSEX CAROL

ON Christmas night all Christians sing to hear the news the angels bring. News of great joy, news of great mirth, news of our merciful King's birth. Then why should men on earth be so sad, since our Redeemer made us glad, when from our sin he set us free, all for to gain our liberty? When sin departs before his grace, then life and health come in its place. Angels and men with joy may sing all for to see the new-born King. All out of darkness we have light, which made the angels sing this night: Glory to God and peace to men, now and for evermore, Amen!

The Archbishop says

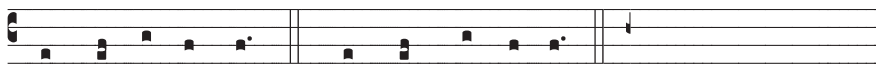

Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

℟: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

The Archbishop says the PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

℟: Amen.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

T  HE Lord be with you. ℟: And with your spi-rit.

 Lift up your hearts. ℟: We lift them up to the Lord.

 Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. ℟: It is right and just.

COMMUNION RITE

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All sing

O UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;
and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

℟: For the kingdom, the power and the glo-ry are yours now and for ev-er.

Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

℟: Amen.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

The Archbishop shows the host to the congregation, saying

Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

✠ Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Catholics who have made the proper spiritual and sacramental preparation may come forward in the procession to receive Holy Communion.

The sacred host must be consumed in the presence of the communion minister.

The Choir sings the COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Psalm 109:3

In splendoribus sanctorum, ex utero ante luciferum genui te.

In holy splendour I begot you before the dawn.

The Choir sings the COMMUNION MOTET

Eric Whitacre (b. 1970)

LUX AURUMQUE

Lux, calida gravisque pura velut aurum et canunt angeli molliter modo natum.

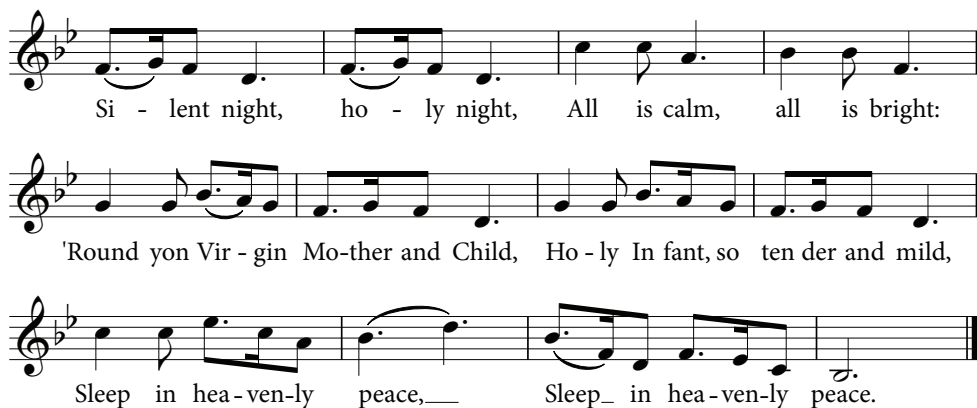

Light, warm and heavy as pure gold and the angels sing softly to the new-born baby.

Original English, Edward Esch (b. 1970)

Latin translation, Charles Anthony Silvestri (b. 1965)

THE HYMN

Si - lent night, ho - ly night, All is calm, all is bright:
'Round yon Vir - gin Mo-ther and Child, Ho - ly In fant, so ten der and mild,
Sleep in hea - ven-ly peace, Sleep in hea - ven-ly peace.

Silent night, holy night,
Shepherds quake at the sight,
Glories stream from heaven afar,
Heav'nly hosts sing Alleluia;
Christ, the Saviour, is born,
Christ, the Saviour, is born!

Silent night, holy night,
Son of God, love's pure light
Radiant beams from thy holy face,
With the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth,
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

The Archbishop says the PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

✠ Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

The Deacon announces the Apostolic Blessing, saying

The Most Reverend Father, Anthony, by the grace of God and the Apostolic See, Bishop of this holy Church of Sydney, will give the Apostolic Blessing with a plenary indulgence, in the name of the Roman Pontiff, to all present who are truly penitent and have confessed their sins and received Holy Communion. Pray to God for our Most Holy Father, Pope Francis, our Archbishop, Anthony, and for holy Mother Church and strive, by holiness of life, to walk in full communion with it.

The Lord be with you.

℟: And with your spirit.

Bow down for the blessing.

May the God of infinite goodness, who by the Incarnation of his Son has driven darkness from the world and by that glorious Birth has illumined this most holy night, drive far from you the darkness of vice and illumine your hearts with the light of virtue.

℟: Amen.

May God, who willed that the great joy of his Son's saving Birth be announced to shepherds by the Angel, fill your minds with the gladness he gives and make you heralds of his Gospel.

℟: Amen.

And may God, who by the Incarnation brought together the earthly and heavenly realm, fill you with the gift of his peace and favour and make you sharers with the Church in heaven.

℟: Amen.

Through the intercession of the blessed apostles Peter and Paul, may almighty God bless you, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

℟: Amen.

Go forth, the Mass is ended.

℟: Thanks be to God.

St Mary's
Cathedral
Choir

THE CATHEDRAL CHOIR

St Mary's Cathedral Choir is the oldest musical institution in Australia. In 1818 a group of choristers was formed to sing Vespers before the Blessed Sacrament in the Dempsey household, the centre of Catholic worship in the penal colony. After the establishment of St Mary's Cathedral in 1833 the successors of these choristers formed the permanent Cathedral Choir. In faithfulness to the Benedictine English tradition from which the Cathedral's founders came, the Choir is formed of men and boys, preserving the historical character of Catholic liturgical and musical heritage. St Mary's is the only Catholic Cathedral in Australia to have an on-site Choir School where the twenty-four boy choristers are educated. The other parts of the Choir are provided by lay clerks who are professional singers. The Choir's primary function is to sing Vespers and Mass in the Cathedral which it does almost daily, but it has also undertaken several international tours, recordings and concert projects.
