WORD FROM THE DEAN

Dear Cathedral Parishioners and Visitors,

It was a joy to see so many people attending the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter! Thousands joined us “online” as well, including many people in Europe, the Americas, Asia and Africa. On Good Friday I had the pleasure of meeting some folks who have only recently returned from Europe and completed quarantine, who told me that for months they’d been watching Masses from St Mary’s Cathedral, Sydney and were glad to be able to attend in person! It is great that we at St Mary’s Cathedral have been a spiritual support and encouragement to many as we grapple with life in a pandemic.

Thankfully we were able to arrange for a priest to travel to our sister parish on Norfolk Island for Holy Week. Travel to Norfolk Island during the pandemic has often been difficult due to quarantine and lockdowns, and despite our plans to have a priest there for Christmas at the last moment that became impossible.

May the mercy of God revealed in the Resurrection of Christ continue to heal us and bring joy and hope to our world!

Fr Don Richardson, Dean
