

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Solemn Vespers and Benediction

The Office of Evening Prayer

Fourth Sunday of Lent Laetare

27 March 2022
5.00pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

CANTICLE

1 Peter 2:21-24

Qui peccatum non fecit, He committed no sin;

cum pateretur, non comminabatur, When he suffered, he did not threaten;
commendabat autem iuste iudicanti; but he trusted to him who judges justly.

qui peccata nostra ipse pertulit He himself bore our sins in corpore suo super lignum, in his body on the tree, ut peccatis mortui iustitiæ viveremus; that we might die to sin and live to righteousness.
cuius livore sanati estis. By his wounds you have been healed.

ALL the runners at the stadium are trying to win, but only one of them gets the prize. You must run in the same way, meaning to win. All the fighters at the games go into strict training; they do this just to win a wreath that will wither away, but we do it for a wreath that will never wither.

INTERCESSIONS

We give thanks to Christ, our head and our master. Let us pray to him with trust and humility, for he served all men and was good to everyone.

℟. Lord Jesus, visit your family.

Lord, help the bishops and priests of your Church, who share in your office of head and pastor; unite them with yourself to lead all men to the Father. ℟.

Send your angels to protect those who travel; keep them from harm and bring them safely home. ℟.

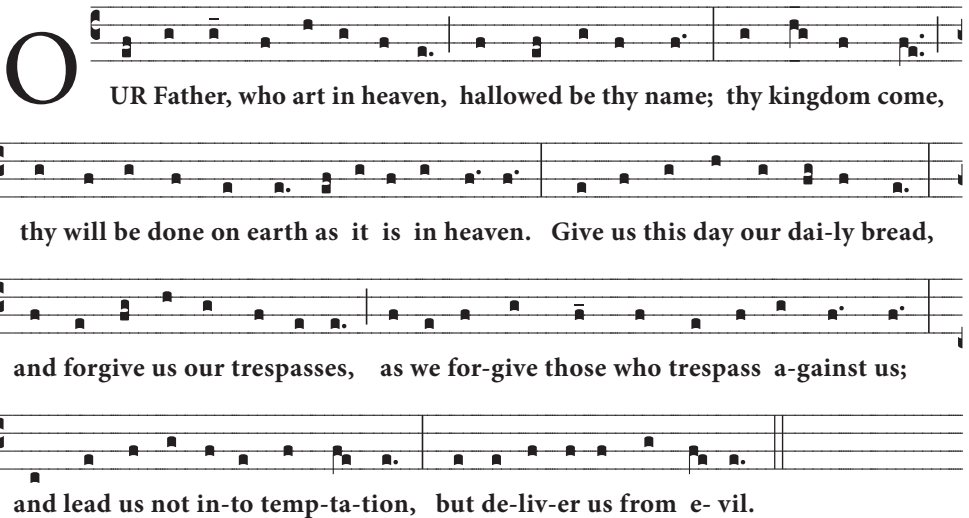

Teach us to care for everyone; make us more like you in serving others. ℟.

Help us to form a human community where all men live in friendship; Lord, unite us in your love. ℟.

Show your love for the dead: let them see the light of your face. ℟.

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All sing

O UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;
and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

COLLECT

LORD God, in your surpassing wisdom
You reconcile man to yourself through your Word.
Grant that your Christian people may come with eager faith and ready will to celebrate the Easter festival.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

℟: Amen.

your son: make me like one of your hired men.*
