

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL

Solemn Vespers and Benediction

The Office of Evening Prayer

Twenty ninth Sunday of the Year

WEEK I

19 October 2025
5.00pm

THE OFFICE OF VESPERS

Vespers, also called Evening Prayer, is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray continually". Through hymns, psalms, canticles, readings, and prayers, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and intercession for the needs of the world.

The Liturgy of the Hours includes several specified times of prayer. The most important times are Morning Prayer: Lauds (which takes place upon rising) and Evening Prayer: Vespers (which takes place as dusk begins to fall). The Office of Vespers gives thanks for the day just past and makes an evening sacrifice of praise to God.

Bishops, priests, deacons, and many men and women in consecrated life pray the Liturgy of the Hours each day. Their work is organised around this prayer, keeping God always at the centre of their days. Lay people are encouraged to pray the Liturgy of the Hours as well, especially Morning and Evening Prayer. The public singing of Lauds and Vespers is a regular part of the life and worship of St Mary's Cathedral.

INTERCESSIONS

Christ is the Head of his body, the Church, and we are members of that body;
gathered this evening to pray in his name, we say:

R. Your kingdom come!

May your Church be a light to the nations, the sign and source of your power to unite all: may she lead mankind to the mystery of your love. R.

Guide the Pope, and all the bishops of your Church: grant them the gifts of unity, of love, and of peace. R.

Lord, give peace to our troubled world and give to your children security of mind,
and freedom from anxiety. R.

Help us to bring your compassion to the poor, the sick, the lonely, the unloved; lead us to find you in the coming week. R.

Awaken the dead to a glorious resurrection: may we be united with them at the end of time. R.

At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All sing

O UR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we for-give those who trespass a-gainst us;
and lead us not in-to temp-ta-tion, but de-liv-er us from e- vil.

COLLECT

ALMIGHTY, ever-living God, make us ever obey you willingly and promptly. Teach us how to serve you with sincere and upright hearts in every sphere of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

℟: Amen.

THE MOTET

EGO flos campi et lilium convallium. Sicut lilium inter spinas sic amica mea inter filias. Fons hortorum et puteus aquarum viventium quæ fluent impetu de Libano.

I am like the flower of the field, the lily of the valley. Like a lily among the thorns, so is my beloved among women. Like a garden spring, like a well of living waters that flow swiftly down from Lebanon.
