THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

In your midst I will leave a humble and a lowly people.

Seek the Lord
all you, the humble of the earth, who obey his commands.

Seek integrity,
seek humility:
you may perhaps find shelter
on the day of the anger of the Lord.

In your midst I will leave a humble and lowly people, and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.
They will do no wrong,
will tell no lies;
and the perjured tongue will no longer
be found in their mouths.
But they will be able to graze and rest with no one to disturb them.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 145:7-10

R. Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan. R.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. R.

SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 1:26\u201331

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians God has chosen what is weak by human reckoning.

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people, or came from noble families? No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen - those who are nothing at all to show those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Matthew 5:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
Rejoice and be glad;
Your reward will be great in heaven.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 5:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Happy are the poor in spirit.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

WORD FROM THE DEAN

Dear Cathedral Parishioners and Visitors,

This Sunday in Australia is “Sunday of the Word of God”, something established by the late Pope Francis several years ago. In the rest of the world it is held on the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time but in Australia on the first Sunday in February.

Two relevant paragraphs from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

104 In Sacred Scripture, the Church constantly finds her nourishment and her strength, for she welcomes it not as a human word, "but as what it really is, the word of God".^(1 Thes 2:13; cf. Dei Verbum 24.) "In the sacred books, the Father who is in heaven comes lovingly to meet his children, and talks with them." ^(Dei Verbum 21)

108 Still, the Christian faith is not a "religion of the book." Christianity is the religion of the "Word" of God, a word which is "not a written and mute word, but the Word is incarnate and living". ^(St. Bernard, S. missus est hom. 4,11:PL 183,86) If the Scriptures are not to remain a dead letter, Christ, the eternal Word of the living God, must, through the Holy Spirit, "open [our] minds to understand the Scriptures." ^(Cf. Lk 24:45.)

For our Cathedral “Year of Saints”, here are two to be inspired by this week:

- Blessed John Speed, died 1594. He was a lay man living in the north of England during the time of persecution of Catholics under Queen Elizabeth the First. At that time, not only were any Catholic priests found in England condemned to death, but anyone who helped a priest was also considered a traitor and liable to be executed. John Speed assisted several missionary priests ministering clandestinely in England by escorting them between safe-houses and Catholic families. As a guide and companion he enabled the priests to reach isolated Catholics for sacraments such as Mass, confession, and viaticum. John Speed was eventually arrested when the priest John Boste was caught near Durham. Speed had accompanied Boste and other priests through hostile territory where government agents were always on the lookout. He was imprisoned for several months, tried, and hanged for the crime of aiding a Catholic priest.

- Blessed Maria Helena Stollenwerk was born in 1852 in Rollesbroich in Germany. From her girlhood she had thoughts of being a missionary, and she tried to find a convent that sent missionaries around the world, but without any success. However, she met St Arnold Janssen (founder of the Divine Word Missionaries) who supported her idea of a women's congregation dedicated to the missions. He established the Missionary Sisters Servants of the Holy Spirit, which Maria joined and in due course became Superior General, helping to form the sisters for missionary service overseas. After eight years as Superior, she resigned that responsibility and dedicated herself to adoration. In 1899 she was diagnosed with meningitis and died in 1900. Her final words were "Jesus: I die for You."

Finally, Monday 2nd February is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, when it is customary to bless candles that will be used at prayer. If you have candles you would like blessed, do bring them along to Mass on Monday.

Fr Don Richardson, Dean.
